ELECTRIC ROADS.

In some of our smaller cities not far remote from larger ones are urged some objections. The main and only one worthy of serious attention is the statement that the larger city would get the better in the balance of trade should we be of easier access as the result from electric roads. Before we declared in favor of electric roads to and from this city we looked this matter up, studied it closely. We found in Shelbyville some years ago objections were raised to many railroads coming in and going out because Louisville, with her great enterprises, her large importers, only thirty-five miles away, they thought would be hurtful to the interests of retailers in the small city. Now after a lapse of fifteen years Shelbyville has better and more stores, business is brisk and nearer a cash basis than ever before. Old houses have been replaced with new ones, the main street is of vitrified brick, farm lands have increased more than twenty per cent, and the people are eager for an electric road with less rates and more frequent trips, telephone exchanges, etc. We are informed that that county has at least 400 subscribers to various systems of telephones and free mail delivery is in the near future. If the steam roads have materially aided business in Shelby county would not electric roads be beneficial to the citizens of Montgomery county? When the building of a railroad from Mt. Sterling to Lexington was first agitated objectors said, "When that road is built you may say good bye to our business." The road was built, what about our business? Later the question of extending the road came up. The same argument was used, and instead of hurting business it helped it again. Then we paid large subscriptions for roads, and to day we would not for the money spent, enormous as it was, take it and return to former conditions. It will be so with electric lines. Our people will reap of their benefits and be glad they are here and have webbed the entire country. Some may censure the more aggressive but praise will come later.

RIGHT YOU ARE.

W. B. O'Connell, County Clerk of Montgomery county, is a candidate for Clerk of the Court of Appeals, and if successful will no doubt be an honor to the people he represents. There are others asking the same honor, but we feel that the people of Nichols should not forget or neglect Mr. O'Connell, as he is an adjacent county Democrat and a most efficient County Clerk of several years' experience—Nichols County Democrat.

Claim that the Goebel Reward Commission is unconstitutional.

A petition was filed by H. C. Evans in the Franklin Circuit Court Tuesday in the name of David M. Covington, of Leslie county, seeking to enjoin the Goebel Reward Commissioners from certifying any claims to the auditor, and also asking to enjoin the auditor from paying such claims. The claim is set up in the petition that the Reward Commission is unconstitutional and void.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT.

John D. Long, Secretary of the Navy, and Elihu Root, Secretary of War, alternate a whack at the man who led the Flying Squadron into the fight that destroyed the Santiago fleet, upholding the Majority report, ignoring the Minority report. Gen. Miles is told to shut his mouth and Historian MacClay is discharged because he exulted in the Court Findings.

In three steps efforts have been made to close the Schley controversy, though it may be forced further against the wishes of the President, War and Navy Departments, all of whom are now concerned. Secretary Long has approved the findings of the majority of the Court of Inquiry, and his action strikes from the record the dissenting views of Admiral Dewey and from which he refuses to recede. The President ordered the removal of Edgar S. MacClay, author of the scurrilous attacks upon Schley, because of his boasting interview of vindication when the findings of the Court of Inquiry were made public. It is intimated by Isidor Raynor, counsel for Schley, that if the President does not intervene to save Schley from the stigma that the perpetuation of the majority finding alone would leave, the courts might be called upon to compel the recording also of Dewey's dissent and findings.

Coming Session.

The 55th General Assembly of Kentucky Legislature will convene Jan. 6th. There are many items of interest to be considered during the sixty working days allowed by the Constitution for the work of this body. Two political parties compose this body. Of the 138 men composing the Assembly 74 of the lower house and 25 of the upper are Democrats and 26 of the House and 13 of the Senate Republicans. It is therefore evident how all political matters will be settled. The Senateatorial race, it is hoped, will be settled in great haste and it now appears that McCreary is the people's choice and that the representatives will settle the matter accordingly. As to how the masses of Montgomery and Menifee are we have no doubt. The people would vote this matter up to them for McCreary first, and so it would be if the people of Montgomery, Clark and Bourbon had the same privilege.

A building fund of $1,800,000 will be asked of the State with which to construct new capitol buildings, and our friends down in St. Louis will want $100,000 with which to advertise our State products at their approaching exhibition. (The more for St. Louis), and on this question we would ask our representatives to be very cautious. All suggested measures should be in the hands of the men here early.

Want New County.

Citizens of the territory surrounding Olive Hill, at a mass meeting took steps to organize a new county from surrounding territory, and will present a bill to the coming legislature.

Prescriptions accurately compounded at Wesley's Drugstore.

For Mother's Sake.

There is a pretty little story as to Governor Crane's reason for refusing a place in President Roosevelt's cabinet, says the Atlanta Constitution. The reason assigned by the Governor was sickness in his family and inability to arrange his affairs on short notice. It is said the real reason was the unwillingness of Governor Crane to leave his mother, who is very old, and who does not wish to go to Washington to live. When she was asked if she wanted her son to become a member of the cabinet she said she did not, and that settled it.

After all, could a dutiful son do less? The honors of office are but baubles, and not to be compared with a mother's love. Men are too prone to forget the old folks in the struggle for place and power. It is refreshing to read of an instance like this, where a man puts his mother's preference above his own.

"Honor thy father and thy mother" is one of the most beautiful laws ever written, and it should be so deeply engraved upon the heart that neither avarice ambition, nor desire for wealth can obliterate it.

Went to the Devil.

Some one has sent our friend, S. Adams, of the Winchester Sun, a rabbit foot. We are glad to know Will don't need it, but think he has sent "Frosty" way in the rear. Hear him:

"We are under profound obligations to some one for this kind remembrance, but as we are in tolerably fair "flick" just now, thank you, we have sturned the package over to our "devil," who is perhaps the most hapless, the most luckless, the most shiftless wight in the shop."

Enterprise.

The Fiscal Court in session last week granted Right of Way and franchise to the Blue Grass Traction Company for an Electric railroad to be constructed from Winchester to Mt. Sterling. Work of surveying and locating will be started favorable, begin within twenty days. Mr. John R. Allen represented the company before the court. The Fiscal Courts of Madison and Woodford counties have granted franchises to same company.

The Zionist Congress.
The Zionist Congress opened at Basle, Switzerland, Dec. 26, under the presidency of Dr. Theodore Herzl, of Vienna, the founder of the Zionist movement to Palestine. The congress is attended by over 1,000 delegates, representing every important country of the world, with the exception of Australia.

Auditor's Agent F. Stanley Watson has filed information at Mayfield against the Vanderbilt interests, asking the Mason County Court to assess them for county and State taxation for every year since 1892 on their Chesapeake and Ohio railway stock, valued at $186,000, $2.250.

Chas. Wilson and family have moved from the Spomer neighborhood to Richmond Avenue, this city. Mr. Wilson will work for the Continental Tobacco Co.

If you enjoy something first class in the way of amusements; something free from rag time and melo-dramatic elements, do not fail to hear the Lyric Ladies Concert Company January 9th, 1902.

On Thursday the retail price of dressed turkeys in Louisville was 20c, and the supply was exhausted.

Wireless Telegraphy to be used on Warships.

The Department has taken the initial steps toward the adoption of wireless telegraphy as a means of signaling between warships at sea. To this end Rear Admiral Bradford, of the Bureau of Equipment, has asked that the armored cruisers of the Pennsylvania class have their masts and rigging so arranged that the wireless system can be introduced.

The British navy already has a number of its ships equipped with the wireless system, but this is the first move on the part of the American navy to make use of a wireless plan.

British Artillery to be Withdrawn.

The War Office of England has decided to withdraw twenty batteries of artillery from South Africa at once. This action is taken on the ground that under the present conditions of guerrilla warfare the guns are of little use, and are rather a hindrance to mobility and decisiveness. The third year of the war has ended, and even now the prospect of British supremacy is discouraging.

Bryan's Paper Prosperous.

Mr. Bryan's Commoner will receive publication, as has been reported. At no time within the eleven months of its existence has it been more prosperous than now. The paid circulation for last week was 10,300, and as the paper has a good supply of advertising at big rates, it is not wrong to say that Mr. Bryan will clean up $10,000 the first year. Mr. Bryan has no printing outfit, but thirty persons are employed in the business office to handle the incoming and departing mails.

More Investment Companies in Trouble.

The U. S. Postal authorities have prohibited the delivery of letters addressed to 13 investment companies at Lexington, Ky., on the ground that they are securing money by fraudulent means, much like lottery companies. The companies whose mail has been held up by order of the Postoffice Department will engage counsel to represent them on the day set by the department for hearing.

The late cold spell was impartial, visiting every place between the Rockies and the Atlantic, the Great Lakes and the Gulf of Mexico. Much damage to the orange groves in Florida is feared.

That Cough Hangs On

You have used all sorts of cough remedies but it does not yield; it is too deep seated. It may wear itself out in time, but it is more liable to produce a gripe, pneumonia or a serious throat affection. You need something that will give you strength and build up the body.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

will do this when everything else fails. There is no doubt about it. It nourishes, strengthens, builds up and makes the body strong and healthy, not only to throw off this hard cough, but to fortify the system again for further attacks. If you are run down or emaciated you should certainly take this nourishing food medicine.

SCOTT & BROWN, Chemists, New York.

Beginning to be Serious.

Report from Woodford county says that cattle are dying from a disease the cause of which is a mystery. Most of the cattle affected have been fed upon corn fodder and the first theory was that they were poisoned by "corn smut" which is present upon the stalks in unusually large quantities this year. Another belief was that the animals died from eating too much dry feed without enough salt and water, but cattle have recently died that had access to both salt and water.

The farmers are completely in the dark about the matter and the individual losses are beginning to be serious.

Farm Sold.

Mr. Albert Bourne, of this city, has bought of Henry Wilson his farm on Spener Creek, formerly owned by G. W. Kemper, of 115 acres, for $8,300.

Money Stolen.

On Saturday night thieves entered the home of Daniel Harper, near Owingsville, and stole from under his pillow $102.

School Entertainment.

On Dec. 24 Miss Daisy G. Greenwood's school gave a very pleasant entertainment at the Kiddville Baptist church. The choir of fifteen voices made splendid music. The Ribbon and Goodnight drill by ten small children was an attractive feature, as was also Eliza Lockhart's rendering of "Merry Xmas" and "Whistling Rufus." The child is only five years old and her performance on the organ and singing was wonderful. The relations by Miss Greenwood were just fine. The house was beautifully decorated and crowded with eager spectators and the tree had many things to gladden the anxious hearts. Miss Greenwood is doing fine work and has the confidence of her patrons.

After Investment Companies.

Howard Case.

It is generally believed that the trial of James Howard, docketed for the January term of the Franklin Circuit Court, will be postponed until the April term on account of the fact that neither side is anxious to hurry the case through, and it would be for various reasons, be more convenient to hold the trial when the Legislature is not in session.

STOPS PAIN

Albion, Tenn., Jan. 27, 1901.
Please excuse the first appearance of my name in this paper. I am 77 years old and suffer with great pain in my hips, which is aggravated by the cold weather, and the down pains in the abdomen, which are so severe that I have to give up all my work and am forced to remain at home. I have tried every kind of medicine and I have tried the most popular ones, but without pain in my hips.

tion as follows: Messrs. Hunter English and Charley Highland in front; Messrs. Tom Wilson and George Schlegel, ushers, at the groom on the arm of his best man, Mr. Benjamin F. Gahan ascended the altar on the left; little Miss Nancie Jones, sister of the bride, carrying beautiful pink and white carnations, ascended on the right and stood at the back of the altar; the bride on the arm of her uncle, Edward Jones, ascending on the right. The bride looked charming in an exquisite dress of white chiffon, trimmed with white lace, insertion and ribbon and carried a lovely bouquet of bride's roses. She wore a white tulie veil, enlivened with rose buds and diamonds and falling in graceful folds to the bottom of her train. The groom and his attendants wore the conventional black. At the altar the bridal party formed a handsome group and the ceremony joining in holy wedlock Mr. Fite and Miss Jones was impressively said by Rev. Tom Wilson. It was a pretty ceremony and at its conclusion the bridal party left the church by the centre aisle to the strains of the wedding march in the following order: Little Miss Nancie Jones scattering flowers in the path of the bride and groom, Messrs. Jones and Gahan, Messrs. Wilson and Schlegel, Messrs. English and Highland. No prettier wedding was ever celebrated in Somerset church, nor none at which a more worthy young lady took upon herself the vows of matrimony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Jones, of this county, and is a charming, refined, cultured and attractive young lady. Her father is a prosperous farmer and the family one of the best in our county. The groom is pastor of the Christian church at Palmyra, Mo. Mr. and Mrs. Fite left Thursday night for Louisville, St. Louis and other points in the West where they will visit relatives on Jan. 1st and then they will be at home to their friends in Palmyra, Mo. Their presents were numerous and elegant. We join a host of friends in wishing them a prosperous and happy career.

OSBORNE-PARKER.

In the presence of W. B. O'Conor, C. M. Mudd and Newt Tabb the marriage occurred at the Clerk's office in this city on Saturday, Dec. 28, at 5:45 p.m. The contracting parties were John T. Osborne, of Right Angle, Clark county, son of Simpson Osborne, of Indiana Fields and Miss Maggie Parker, daughter of Joseph Parker, of same neighborhood. This was the second marriage for the groom.

The ceremony was performed by B. W. Trimble. The occasion was conspicuous for the contrast between this and some marriages of which we recent. There was no retinue of friends in gay attire; no enchanting strains of Mendelssohn fell upon the ear; no flowers added charm to blushing bride; no bride's maids bewitchingly gowned in rainbow tints, no groomsmen in conventional black drilled for the events, imparted gloss or tinsel. There was no craning of necks to see who came first; no indiscreet chatter and giggle; no mad rush for the door. Closed windows and waxen tapirs in silver candelabra gave place to the curtain of night and one electric light. Confiding, respectful, loving and modest, they promised to live together as God would have them. Thus they went forth alone into the darkness of night, and who can say that their united lives and love may not be coveted by those upon whom Fortune has lavished her bounty and enticed to luxurious and hurtful ease. May God guide and bless them.

BENTON-WEST.

At the home of the bride's father, Mr. Thomas West, at Miller's Creek, on Thursday, December 19, at 2 p.m., Miss Fannie West was married in marriage to Mr. James Benton, of Irvine. The bride is the youngest daughter of the West family, and is a young woman of sterling qualities. The groom is a son of ex-Judge W. B. Bentz, a young man noted for his energy, thrift and integrity. The groom is a nephew of J. G. Trimble, of this city.

THOMAS-WATTS.

On Wednesday morning at 7 o'clock, Dec. 25, 1901, at the National Hotel, C. S. Thomas was married to Miss Queen Ella Watts, both of Spencer, this county. The ceremony was by B. W. Trimble. The couple left for a short visit to relatives in Mason county, driving in a buggy. After their return they will make their home on Spencer Creek.

PLATANOGAN-TULLEY.

Will Visit Kentucky Legislature.

The management of the Louisville Purchase Exposition will send a delegation of influential citizens to visit the Kentucky Legislature at its opening session and boom the big World's Fair. It is hoped that the Legislature will make a good appropriation to the end that Kentucky may be fittingly represented. Among the members of the delegation who will visit Frankfort are Hon. David R. Francis, former Governor; Hon. Harry B. Hawes and Hon. Breckinridge Jones, all of whom are former Kentuckians and representative citizens of St. Louis. The delegates desire to address the Legislature in joint session.

Well Whipped.

King, a young colored boy, was tried before Judge Alcoer Hazlegride Friday for stealing fruit from Cooper & Barnes and given 30 days in jail. His father told the judge that if he would let the boy off he would give him a good whipping. Judge Hazlegride consented to this, with the proviso that Deputy Jailer Chas. Stedell should say when the boy had enough. The boy was taken to the back of the jail, a buggy whip purchased, and when Charlie said stop—well, it was enough.

Post Office Fight.

The fight for the post office at Winchester is quite a lively one from reports. The present post master, R. R. Perry, has been recommended by Senator Dobie. He is opposed by J. M. Owen, a prominent Republican. It is said Capt. K. J. Hampton would accept the plum. Bro. Perry is editor of the Winchester Sentinel and has made that city a good postmaster, and considering the trials and tribulations of a newspaper man, we think Perry should have the plum. Bob, here's to you.

No External Symptoms.

The blood may be in bad condition,
with no external signs, no skin trusion or sores to indicate it. The symptoms in such cases being a variable apetite, pain in the abdomen, constipation and nervousness, loss of flesh and a general run-down condition of the system—clearly showing the blood has lost its nutritive qualities, has become thin and watery. It is in just such cases that S. S. has done some of its quickest and most effective work by building up the blood and supplying the elements lacking to make it strong and vigorous.

"My wife used several times to be ill. S. S. is a blood purifier. I took it to tone up a weak and emaciated system, with very marked effect, with no side effects.

"We regard it as a great tonic and blood purifier." —F. D. Dore, Princeton, N. J.

SSS is the greatest of all tonics, and you will find the appetite it improves at once, strength returns, and nervousness vanishes as new.
rich pure blood once more circulates through all parts of the system.

S. S. is the only purely vegetable blood purifier known. It contains no minerals, no salts. Send for a free book on blood and skin diseases and write our physicians for any information or advice wanted.

"The doctor told me to go to the west of England at least once a week or more, as long as I could stand it, and I did so for a month, and it was good enough for that very thing that I could not find any excuse for a few days off. I've had it ever since, and it's nothing; only a cough."

The fact that the cold and cure periodically comes on again should be warning to us all to take care in time for the most serious and disastrous of all maladies, with a cough.

The use of Dr. Price's Golden Medicine Discovery not only stops the cough but cures the disease. It is an obstinate, deep-seated cough, brought on by long-continued changes, diseases which if neglected or unskillfully treated find a lodgment in consumption.

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is no other medicine "just as good" for weak health.

At a recent meeting of the Mrs. Morris Jacobs of Phillips, Kent Co., Delaware, and her family, Dr. Price said: "I must die soon for I feel so bad. Had a bad attack of consumption, lost a great deal of blood, and got very weak. I have had a sharp pain in my chest and right lung, and had a bad attack of consumption. Dr. Price's Discovery and Pleasant Fortune" was the only thing that helped me. I can do a small washing. I worked in the garden, and I am now strong again. I believe that the Lord and your medicine have been good to me."

Great Weather Calender.

The Chattanooga Medicine Co., the manufacturers of McElroy's Wine, Cough and Rheumatism Balsam-Bright, have just issued the 1901 edition of the Carol Weather Chart and Calendar. This calendar has sprung into universal prominence by accurately foretelling the Galveston flood and predicting the droughts and great floods of the past summer, a year ahead of each occurrence. This office has just received one of these calendars, which consists of twelve sheets of paper, 13x20 inches in size, all fastened together with a gilt binding. Each sheet contains the calendar for one month in large figures that can be read across the room. Under the figures patient weather signals indicating Prof. Devoe's Weather forecasts for every day in the year appear. We understand a few copies of it can be secured by sending 10 cents a piece in postage stamps to The Chattanooga Medicine Co., 14th Avenue, Chattanooga, Tenn.

THE KING AT CHURCH.

Edward VII. Worships in a Small and Uninteresting Chapel.

The people of London, who usually show great curiosity to see King Edward VII. in his royal robes, were disappointed on Sunday and allowed him to worship in peace, declares W. E. Curtis, in the Chicago Record-Herald. It was a remarkable fact that on a recent Sunday morning when there were at least 3,000 people in the courtyard of St. James' palace listening to the music of the band of guard mount, not more than 50 or 60 people, and they the members of the household, were seated in the Chapel Royal, which opens upon that court. There is an outer entrance and an inner one from the corridor of the palace, so that the king may reach it from his apartments in Marlborough house without going into the open air; and all the worshippers, except the royal family, and the ladies and gentlemen in waiting for that day, are admitted at the public doors in St. James' courtyard.

It is a very small and uninteresting church, perhaps there is none more so in all London. There is nothing attractive about it except its severe simplicity. It is as plain as any of the other chapels in South London. The windows are set in ordinary glass, without shades or hangings, and in clustering baulks. The altar is an ordinary chalice, upon which the cross of St. George and the three plumes of the prince of Wales are embossed in gold. The only ornaments are a large brass collection plate, two tall candlesticks, a large candleholder, and two large wax holding bunches of strewing salts. There is no ornament of cross, but over the altar is a fine painting of the Madonna, by Rubens, which never goes to Mass for its place.

There are settings for about 200 people along pews, and no other side of a single pews to the wall. The first row of this kneeling distance from the altar rail is occupied by the king and his family, who prefer to sit with the congregation than to use a gallery of handsomely carved oak, which projects from the palace wall and was intended to insure their privacy.

At 9:30 o'clock, while the king, queen and Princess Victoria partook of the communion, administered by Rev. Mr. Shepherd, subdean of St. James, the outside doors of the chapel were closed and locked. A little group of people gathered there to await their opening. They were plainly dressed, serious persons, who did not look disengaged, but may have been such, because appearances are very deceptive.

Most of them came foot, although several drove up in carriages that bore coronets on the panels of the doors. On the minute of ten o'clock the organ began a black swan, drawing a long staff, opened the doors and admitted who desired to enter. Then it was closed and locked them. As soon as the little congregation was seated the singer opened a side door leading into the palace and a choir of 12 boys and a man entered, singing the processional hymn. The choir boys were dressed in a livery of red and gold. The man wore the usual surplice. Each had a band of grape around his liturum. The minister followed them with his assistant, one taking the pulpit and the other the reading desk.

Immediately behind them came King Edward VII., dressed in a black frock coat and carrying a black hat, in his ungloved hands. Queen Victoria and Princess Victoria, both of whom are taller than the king, followed him. They were dressed in black, a small black bonnet and a grape collar as a head costume as you could imagine. That of course was quite similar except that she wore a black silk hat instead of a bonnet. Both are very white and the queen is although past 50 years of age, looks as young as her daughter. Her daughter, Princess Victoria, is a fair-haired girl, dressed in a black, long-sleeved dress with a white collar and white cuffs and white with the fingers. She is of a tall, slender, slim figure, a good deal taller than her mother, but not so young. Her mother is a pure English, as elegant as the aristocrats, though her father is a German ancestry and her mother is a Dane. One would find it difficult to determine which is the handomest, but no one can look upon the queen of England without being convinced that she is a woman of intellect, refinement and amiable character.

No man knows how foolish he can act until he attends a 5 o'clock service. He reminds the public that he is ready on short notice to do in roofing, guttering, plastering, etc.

Busy Bee Cash Store,

And every preparation is being made for a Great Fall Business.

The buyers for our four large stores have returned from the Eastern market and the transfer wagons are kept busy unloading the boxes and bales of

The new fall and winter fabrics are more beautiful this season than ever before, and it will be the policy of the Busy Bee Cash Store corporation to hammer prices down so low that competition will be lost sight of. We buy for cash and sell for cash and this alone enables us to offer values that will be new to the people in our city and county. Anyon may hire newspaper space and appeal to the eye with showy advertisements, not everyone, however, can reap results. Bold type is impressive, and expensive, but it is the doing and not the saying that counts in the long run. We are the pioneers of low prices in this city and it shall be our aim this fall to fight high prices, and old-time ways of doing business with the tenacity of bloodhounds and give to our customers a harvest of rich bargains that will be long remembered

CLOTHING

And now for the Clothing. Here is where we "knock em out." Competition is bound to take a back seat when they butt up against our clothing stock. Our buyers went up against the clothing market just like there never would be any more clothing to buy, but they couldn't help it. They made offers for stock upon stock of clothing for cash down and their offers were accepted.

We have the clothing bought at our own prices. You get it for just about half what it would cost you in regular houses. Men's, Boys', Youths and Children's nobby fall suits, overcoats, odd pants, odd vests, odd coats, and everything to be had in a first-class clothing house are being shown in this your entire family with less the most healing salve in the world.

For Rent.

House of about six rooms and all necessary outbuildings, on North Mayfield Street. Apply to R. D. Wilson, 1801.

Drink Said To Be Causing Insanity Among Soldiers. An eminent army surgeon makes the startling assertion that the unusually large number of insanity cases among the American soldiers on the islands is due to the indiscriminate drinking of wine. "Down with wine," he says. "Down with anodyne," we also say. "Down with lynch law" and "Down with the most powerful weapon to lawlessness—the legalized salaried shirt." —Kentucky White Ribbon.

If you want any insurance to buy houses and lots in Mt. Sterling, Ky., call on or address John Davis, 1801, Mt. Sterling, Ky.

Down With the Saloon. While there are other reasons which produce insanity, there is no doubt that the excesses of the drinker are the chief cause of insanity. While we join in the slogan "Down with anodyne," we also say "Down with lynch law" and "Down with the most powerful weapon to lawlessness—the legalized salaried shirt." —Kentucky White Ribbon.
